

Creating e-Readiness In e-Governance

Corpus has participated in the successful completion of many strategic, mission critical and emerging technology initiatives for our clients throughout the world. We understand the culture, demanding business issues, processes and procedures, architecture and administrative requirements within our clients. Our experienced team of technical specialists and consultants have the knowledge and expertise to augment teams and deliver on requirements. Our professionals have assisted in the strategy, definition, design, development, testing, maintenance and support of many of the technology solutions and IT systems within certain verticals including, Finance, Government, Education, Healthcare, Telco, Cable, Satellite, Media and Entertainment.

Company :

Global Media Solutions Company founded in 1999.

40M Revenue in 2009 with 60% from NA, 30% from Europe and 10% from APAC. 300 consultants across the globe.

Working with global organizations deploying solutions to Media & Entertainment Industry

Locations:

Headquartered in Dallas, TX with offices in Denver, London, Amsterdam, Singapore, Hyderabad, Bangalore and Noida

Quality:

We utilize our experience with SEI-Capability Maturity Model (CMM),

ISO 9000 and Malcolm Baldrige in the creation and implementation of processes and best practices that enable us to provide consistent service delivery.

Focus:

'Triple i'
offerings

Interactivity

Integration

Intelligence

Corpus is a CMMI Level 3 company that has been providing high-quality software solutions to our customers since 1999. Corpus provides software solutions focused on enabling business-driven technology initiatives. We provide the Small-Medium Enterprise (SME) and Fortune 500 clients, worldwide, with platform independent standards, compliant frameworks and components, and CMMI Level 5 assessed software development services. Corpus also offers flexible on-site, off-site and off-shore capabilities to accommodate the client's

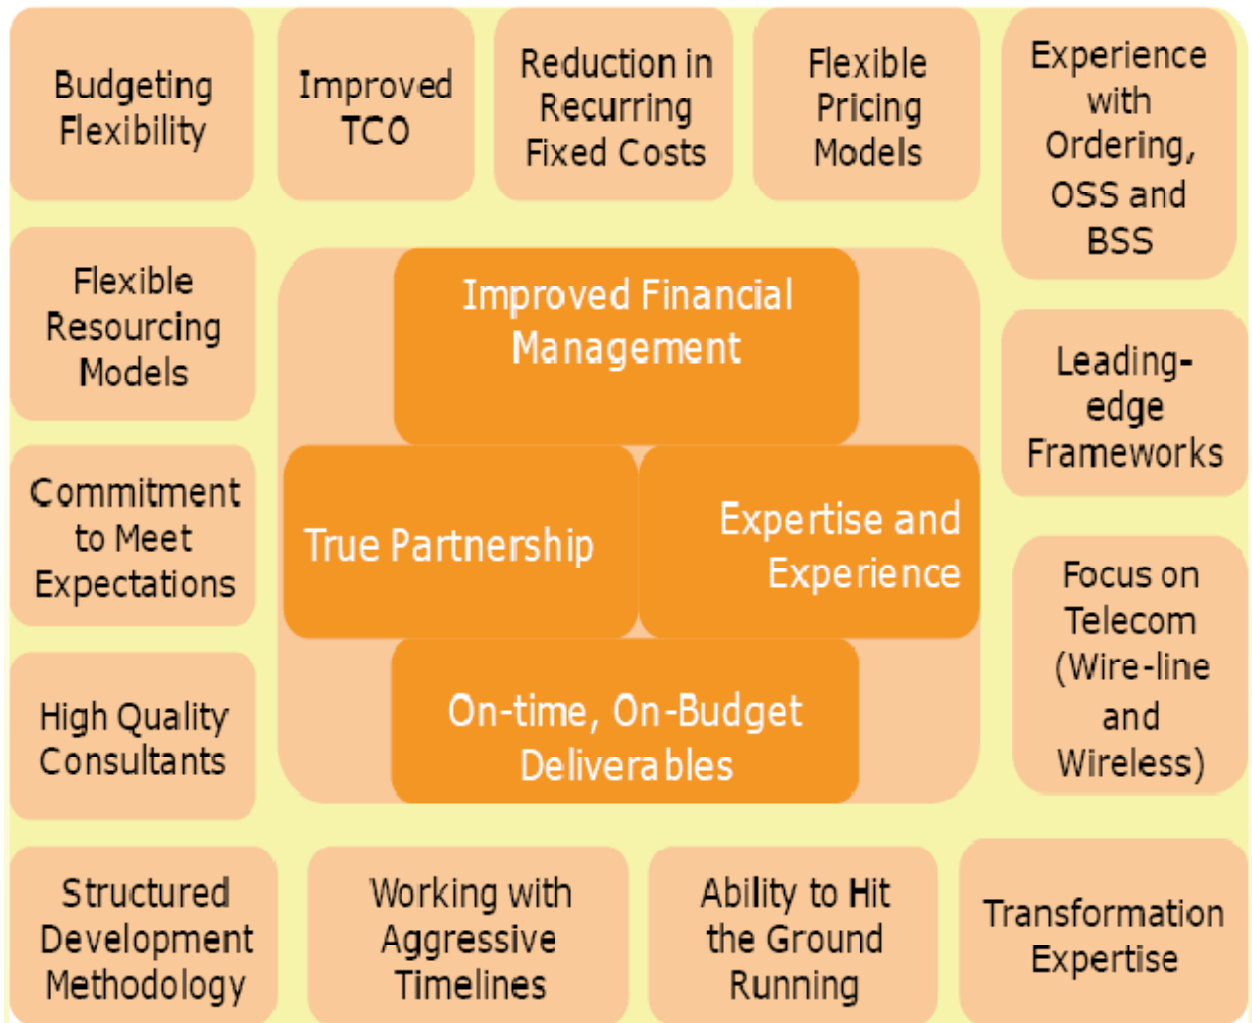

We provide the Small-Medium Enterprise (SME), Public Sector and Fortune 500 clients, worldwide, with platform independent standards, compliant frameworks and components, and CMMI Level 5 assessed software development services. Corpus also offers flexible onsite, off-site and off-shore capabilities to accommodate the client's needs.

Worldwide

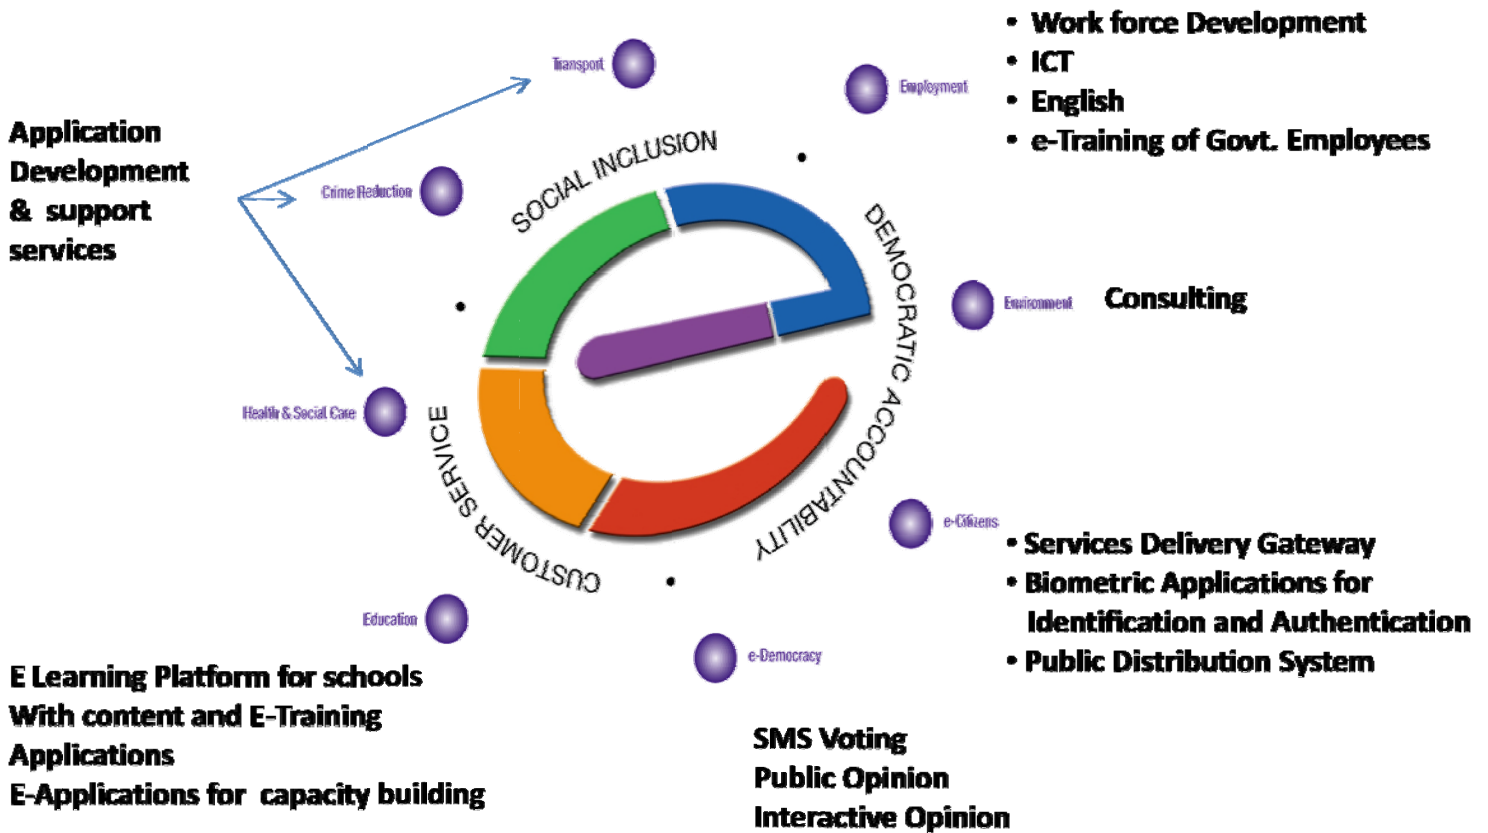

India

Corpus understands the inherent challenges that our clients face in terms of delivering value and has aligned our Corporate Strategy to serve these needs. We strive to match your commitment to providing world class service. The Corpus value proposition aims to enable stronger Business-IT alignment with our customers.

Corpus Provides Experience, Quality, Flexibility and Commitment.

Corpus helps its customers strengthen their competitive position by reducing time to market, complexity, and cost of ownership while improving business performance. Our deep industry expertise, technical expertise, and efficient global delivery capabilities combine to bring businesses an SLA based model that incorporates proven methodologies and best practices to enable continuous quality improvement of solutions and services at optimum costs

The Corpus team serves it's customers with a robust combination of industry expertise, solutions, technological acumen and outsourcing capabilities. We offer ideas and solutions that help organizations achieve high performance by enabling them with quick application deployments, , control costs, optimize asset use and capitalize on consolidation and convergence. Corpus is one of the few IT solution specialists in the market with extensive experience with Telecommunications and Convergence related initiatives.

Anil Manocha, General Manager: anil.manocha@corpus.com

Patanjali Mishra, Project Manager: Patanjali.mishra@corpus.com